Step back in time during the Cincinnati Art Museum's annual summer fundraiser on Aug. 12

CINCINNATI— Join the Cincinnati Art Museum (CAM) Catalysts on Friday, August 12 from 6–10 p.m. as we host the second annual A Happening special event. The 21+-only, ticketed, 1920s-inspired celebration will take place throughout the museum after-hours. Costumes are encouraged.

Guests are invited to look back at the experimental artwork from the 1920s that may have inspired some of the very first Happenings. Travel through time and enjoy dinner-by-the-bite, cocktails including a specialty drink by New Riff Distillery, music by the Bluewater Kings Band, live performances from Pones, Poems While You Wait, and more!

In addition, guests will experience the museum's newest exhibition Unlocking an Art Deco Bedroom—a lavish period room installation originally designed by Austrian-born architect Joseph Urban for 17-year-old Elaine Wormser. The exhibition embodies the distinct modern design that Urban developed and employed throughout his career, highlighting his talent as a colorist, his flair for the dramatic, and his skillful blend of Viennese artistic influences with the prevailing modern style now known as Art Deco.

All proceeds from the event will empower the museum to bring more dynamic art exhibitions, such as Beyond Bollywood, coming in fall of 2022, and Picasso Landscapes: Out of Bounds, coming in spring of 2023, to Cincinnati.

Museum member tickets and young professional tickets are $75 each. General admission tickets are $100 per person. Both are available online and at the door and include food and drink. Guests must be 21 and older to attend. Although costumes are encouraged, weapons and/or full facial coverings are not permitted. To learn about donor opportunities, please contact events@cincyart.org or call 513-639-2962.

The Cincinnati Art Museum would like to thank the following organizations for gracious sponsorships of this event, including: Dewey's Pizza; Johnson Investment Counsel; Mariner Wealth Advisors; Hindman Auctions; Michael Schuster Associates; ProLink Staffing; Bearcat Storage; McGilligan MD Direct Primary Care; Mary A.
