Request for Proposals 2024 Rosenthal Education Center Artist in Residence

The Cincinnati Art Museum requests proposals from an artist or a team of artists for the 2024 Rosenthal Education Center Artist in Residence. The Rosenthal Education Center Artist in Residence will have the opportunity to create an interactive installation on view in the Rosenthal Education Center from May 4, 2024, until October 27, 2024.

Eligibility: This RFP is open to all artists and artist teams over 18, who currently reside in the Greater Cincinnati/Tri-State region.

Application Deadline: Sunday, October 1, 2023 5:00 pm EST.

Project Budget:

$3,000 artist honorarium + REC programming fee

$5,000 includes design, fabrication, engineering, installation

Project Background

The Rosenthal Education Center (REC) is a drop-in interactive gallery and maker space in the Cincinnati Art Museum designed to teach families about the museum's permanent collection through artmaking, hands-on educational stations, and programming. From May through October of each year, the REC features a hands-on, immersive and interactive art installation developed and created by a local artist inspired by artwork in the CAM permanent collection.

Artmaking opportunities developed by the artist and REC staff will be available for visitors to work on in the space or take home through the run of the exhibit. The artist will also take part in a series of six (one per month) drop in "meet the artist" programs in the REC throughout the duration of the exhibit. The artist is responsible for repairing or replacing elements damaged or broken throughout the duration of the exhibition. Past Rosenthal Education Center Artists in Residence include Pam Kravetz, Terence Hammonds, Christian Schmit, Jim Tucker, Michael Thompson and Julia Lipovsky.

Specifications

- The artwork must include interactive elements geared towards children aged 3-12 and withstand touching and continuous hands-on interaction for six months.
- The theme this year is “What inspires you?”
- In the proposal, the artist(s) must identify a minimum of one and a maximum of five artworks in the Cincinnati Art Museum collection that served as primary inspiration for the proposed installation.
- The proposed artwork and installation must be accessible to all levels of ability and mobility.
- The proposed artwork/installation must encompass a space of roughly 357 square feet, about the length and width of two parallel parking spaces with a mural wall space of 317 inches wide and 127 inches tall, and about 160 inches deep.
- Artists interested in submitting proposals are strongly encouraged to visit the Rosenthal Education Center to see the space.
