Cincinnati Art Museum Announces Board Officers and New Trustees for 2026–2027

CINCINNATI — November 2, 2026— The Cincinnati Art Museum (CAM) is pleased to announce the appointment of its Board Officers and the election of newly designated Trustees for the 2026-2027 fiscal year, spanning September 1, 2026, through August 31, 2027.

Continuing in their Officer roles are Chair Bruce Petrie, Jr., Bricker Graydon Wyatt (retired); President Andrew B. Quinn, Bardes Corporation; Vice President Eric Kearney, Greater Cincinnati & Northern Kentucky African American Chamber of Commerce and former Ohio state senator; Treasurer Cheryl Rose, Constellation Wealth Advisors; and Secretary Jake Ragland, Salt Creek Capital.

Two newly elected trustees will serve their first term from 2026–2029: Brad Hansman and Kate Roettgers.

Brad Hansman is Senior Vice President within Operations at Medpace, Inc., where he oversees a global team of approximately 1,000 professionals across 40 countries throughout the Americas, Europe, South Africa, the Middle East, and Asia Pacific. Prior to joining Medpace, Hansman served as an Audit Supervisor at Joseph Decosimo & Company, LLC, leading audit and advisory engagements across private, nonprofit, and government sectors. He is a resident of Indian Hill and holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Eastern Kentucky University.

Kate Roettgers is the Group Vice President of Operations at Cintas. Her career with the company spans more than two decades, beginning in 2005 after she graduated from Miami University. Over the years, she has held a range of leadership roles at Cintas, including her 2022 appointment as Vice President of National Accounts, in which she delivered record-setting results in new business and retention, implemented an executive-ownership strategic playbook, and led growth and retention efforts for Cintas' largest customers, representing more than $2 billion in annual revenue. Roettgers is a resident of Madeira and was recently named the 2027 Heart Mini Chair, leading Greater Cincinnati's largest annual fundraising event in support of the American Heart Association.

About the Cincinnati Art Museum

The Cincinnati Art Museum features a diverse, encyclopedic art collection of more than 73,000 works spanning 6,000 years. In addition to displaying its own broad collection, the museum conducts extensive research and creates and organizes several exhibitions each year. It also hosts national and international traveling exhibitions. Through these critical projects and art-related programs, activities and special events, the museum contributes to a more vibrant Cincinnati by inspiring its people and connecting its communities.

Cincinnati Art Museum is supported by the tens of thousands of people who give generously to the annual ArtsWave Campaign, the region's primary source for arts funding. The Ohio Arts Council helps fund the Cincinnati Art Museum with state tax dollars to encourage economic growth, educational excellence, and cultural enrichment for all Ohioans. The Cincinnati Art Museum gratefully acknowledges operating support from the City of Cincinnati, as well as its members. Free general admission to the Cincinnati Art Museum is made possible by a gift from the Rosenthal Family Foundation. Generous support for the museum's extended Thursday hours is provided by Art Bridges Foundation's Access for All program. Exhibition pricing may vary. Parking at the Cincinnati Art Museum is free. Accessibility accommodations are available. Visit cincinnatiartmuseum.org.
