

Cincinnati Art Museum Rules

Let's learn about the rules of the museum.
Here is what we need to remember.

Keep our hands at our sides. We do not touch the artwork, the walls, or the cases.

A gallery attendant may ask us not to touch the art.

Buy a ticket at the Visitor Services desk if we want to see a special exhibition.

Only use pencils and paper in the galleries.

We do not eat, drink or chew gum in the galleries.

Use a quiet voice. We do not yell in the galleries.

Let the security guard look through our bag. They may ask us to put it in the coat room. We will get our belongings back when we leave the museum.

If we need a fidget or sensory headphones, we can pick them up in the Rosenthal Education Center (REC). We will return them when we are finished.

Walk slowly in the museum. We do not run in the galleries.

Stay with our group.

We do not take photographs when we see this icon.
